

Idaho ENERGYSTAR® Builder Partner Agreement

The Idaho Energy Division welcomes _____ as a participating "Builder Partner" associated with the Idaho Energy Division's marketing program meant for the ENERGY STARSM Homes Northwest Program. The Builder Partner acknowledges that the term Idaho ENERGY STARSM Home service marks registered in Idaho by the Idaho Energy Division may only to be used in connection with the Idaho ENERGY STAR Home program and not in any other context, and that the registered trademark ENERGY STAR® is owned by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and that the Builder Partner is entering into agreement with US EPA for use of the ENERGY STAR® trademark and will abide by all terms of the ENERGY STAR Logo use Guidelines.

Idaho Energy Division Provides Participating Builder Partners:

- The Idaho ENERGY STAR Home program logo in digital and camera-ready forms.
- Training for Builder Partner's staff and Realtor® staff for all relevant energy efficiency features and techniques to achieve home certification.
- Identification of Builder Partner as an Idaho ENERGY STAR Home Builder Partner and provide Builder Partners address and phone number to interested citizens who contact the Idaho Energy Division.
- Listing of Builder Partner on the Idaho ENERGY STAR web site.
- Provide technical assistance concerning energy questions for Builder Partner and Builder Partner's staff.

In Consideration of the Services and Benefits Described Above, the Participating Builder Partner Agrees to:

- Use the Idaho ENERGY STAR Home name and logo only in reference to homes rated by the Idaho ENERGY STAR Home Program or status as an Idaho ENERGY STAR Home Builder Partner.
- Usage of the term Idaho ENERGY STAR Home will only refer to homes that have been rated and certified by the Idaho ENERGY STAR Home Program.
- Refrain all staff members from confusing or improper use of the Idaho ENERGY STAR Home name and logo.
- Always use the superscript "SM" with the service Idaho ENERGY STAR HomeSM service marks.
- Not certify or otherwise claim or imply that any home or service, even a rated Idaho ENERGY STAR Home, meets Idaho ENERGY STAR standards, because Idaho ENERGY STAR is a rating indicating the high performance of the whole house as a system and the rating is only done by a trained and certified Idaho ENERGY STAR, Home Performance Specialist (HPS) working independently with the Idaho Energy Division.
- Adhere to the Idaho ENERGY STAR Home program best practices for a healthy, safe, comfortable, durable and energy efficient home.

Proper use of the Service Marks by a Builder Partner Would Include:

- Use of the Idaho ENERGY STAR Home logo will identify that a builder is an active partner within the program. Use of the Idaho ENERGY STAR Home logo and phrase to identify a particular home is built and certified an Idaho ENERGY STAR Home.
- Display of yard sign at the home with the Idaho ENERGY STAR Home logo stating the Builder Partner is listed on the Idaho ENERGY STAR website and builds Idaho ENERGY STAR Homes.
- Advertisements with the Idaho ENERGY STAR Homes logo stating that the builder is an Idaho ENERGY STAR Home Builder Partner.
- A sign or advertisement referring to Idaho ENERGY STAR Home.

Builder Partner shall stop using the Idaho ENERGY STARSM Home service mark immediately if:

- Builder Partner ceases to participate in the Idaho ENERGY STAR, Home Program, or
- The Idaho Energy Division notifies Builder Partner that, in the Division's discretion, the service marks are being used in a confusing or inappropriate way, or
- Builder Partner does not adhere to the terms of this agreement.
